REGAIN THEIR POSITION.

Rumored That Russian Squadron Slipped Japs and Now Occupy Harbor of Vladivostok.

Harbor of Vladivostok.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, April 28.—The Daily Telegraph's Tokic correspondent asserts that the Russian cruisers slipped past the Japanese squadron during a fog and regained the harbor of Vladivostok. This is the only additional news that has reached London concerning the Vladivostok squadron. No further details have been received regarding the sinking of Japanese transport Kinshiu-Maru, which incident is much commented on here as proving that the Japanese placed to great confidence in their command of the sea, and there is no doubt that it will induce greater vigilance on their part. There is some inclination to criticise harshly the action of Rear-Admiral Yeszen, but most of this morning's papers prefer to await particulars of the affair before passing judgment upon it.

The report that the Japanese have occupied Kiulien-Cheng, has not yet been confirmed.

According to the Standard's Tien Tsin correspondent, the whole country outside the great wall is abnormally flooded and any movement of the land forces is impracticable for the present. A special dispatch from Port Arthur says that the demonstration made by Japanese squadron off Port Arthur yesterday morning was for the purpose of creating a scare and inducing the batteries to test their ammunition, but the Russians refrained from answering the Japanese fire.

The Copenhagen correspondent of the Morning Post says there are rumors that Russia is negotiating for the purchase of the Danish liners, Hekla, Norge and Island.

All the speakers, pleaded for a more general recognition of this mode of providing for funds for the public schools. Bishop Lawrence received a great ovation when he detailed his impressions of the Suith. He said that Northern newspaper headlines were misleading; that mer in the North were taught to believe that the South was law-less and loved lynching. He declared that he had found that the Southern people were as zealous in the enforcement of the law as the Northern people and liked the negro as well if not better. He said that if the education of the whites was emphasized more they could better educate the negroes.

The conference adjourned to-night at 11:45. Speeches were made by Bishop Sessums, of Louisiana; John Graham Brooks, of Cambridge, Mass; Col. Thos. Wentworth Higginson, of Boston; Professor S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond, and the conference was brought to a close by a Republican Majority in House Only Passed Bills Necessary to Keep Wheels Going.

APPROPRIATION BILLS PASSED

Congress Adjourned Without Acting on Revision of Tariff.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28,-It cannot be charged by the Democrats that the first session of the Fifty-eighth Con gress, which came to an end to-day, did icans things which it should not have done, but it may be charged with perfect propriety that it left undone many things which it should have done. Repraise must be given it for having failed to do many things the country feared it vouid do. The Republican majority alowed themselves to do only what was absolutely necessary to keep the wheels of government turning. It is almost impossible to point to anything accompossible to point of anything account polished, save the enactment into law of the usual appropriation bills, without which the machinery of government would have had to stop.

DID NOT TOUCH TARIFF.

This Congress was pledged to revise

This Congress was pledged to revise the tariff.

There was not introduced a single bill by a Republican of the Senate or House of Representatives aimed to accomplish anything of the kind. Several Democrats introduced bills drawn to effect reductions in tariff duties on articles made by trusts, and which are sold abroad at cheaper prices than at home. But the Republicans would not allow these bills to be reported, and would not themselves take up any measure of a similar nature. It was demonstrated as clearly as anything could be that the Republican party is as strongly wedded to the doctrine of a protective tariff as ever it was, and that if there is ever to be any tariff revision it must come from the Lemocratic party.

NO CURRENCY REFORM.

This Congress was pledged to reform the currency system.

Soveral Republicans broke from the control of the party bosses long enough to draw and introduce bills which proposed to effect some measure of relief from existing conditions in the financial world. They were never reported from committees, and it is more than suspected that many of them were never intended to be heard of after having been sent to committee. Senator Aldrich.
